

2004 NZSVO Workshops

Sulfide Workshop

Tuesday 9 November 2004

Location: Montana Brancott Winery
State Highway One
BLENHEIM

Start Time: 1.00 PM

Title: Sulfides in wine – The good the bad and the ugly

Number of registrants:

Restricted to 120 persons to ensure participation from registrants.

Programme:

Keynote speaker 1:

Dr Bruce Zoecklein, Professor and Enology Specialist, Virginia Tech.

Volatile sulfur compounds - impact of wine texture/structure and practical management

Keynote speaker 2:

Dr Barry Gump, Professor of Chemistry at California State University, Fresno

Topic yet to be confirmed

Keynote speaker 3:

Dr Charlie Edwards, Associate Professor of Food Science and Human Nutrition, Washington State University

Yeast nutrients and formation of sulfides - new directions

Practical perspectives:

Lisa Van de Water, International Director, Pacific Rim Oenology Services

Practical management of sulfides

Following each presentation there will be time available to discuss the contents of each paper.